MATTHEWS, NC - (March 11, 2008) - ValuePest.com of America, Inc. releases a copy of its Virginia Pesticide Business License. The company decided to release a copy of the Statewide License to settle any confusion as to the company's right to conduct termite and pest control services anywhere inside the State of Virginia since terminating a local service franchise.

"Nothing is more important to me than providing on-time service," says Bob Jones, ValuePest.com President. "Being late and keeping my customer waiting is a deal breaker for me. In fact, we believe it so much that we had to terminate a Virginia franchise over it. At ValuePest.com our customers define our quality and without on-time service, high customer satisfaction cannot be achieved. It's really the only way we'll operate. It's what our customer's deserve and it's exactly what they'll get."

About ValuePest.com of America, Inc.
